Stars up the ante

THEY had their chips and their cards, but Joe Hachem and Shane Warne (right) let down their poker faces yesterday, as they played cards to raise funds for the Shane Warne Foundation.

Warne and Hachem led an impressive line-up of celebrities and poker pros who picked up the cards for charity at Crown.

Among more than 40 celebrities were Michael Clarke and fiancée Lara Bingle, Hamish Blake and Andy Lee, Fifi Box, Garry Lyon, Kelly Landry, Rob Sitch and Jane Kennedy.

And while anyone was welcome to try their hand against the celebrity poker stars, only the high rollers hit the felts, with seats at the prestigious fundraising tournament going for $1000 each.

The night is expected to have raised more than $200,000 for the foundation, which helps seriously ill and underprivileged children.
