Warnie and friends kick in for kids

DESPITE their slump, Shane Warne is confident his beloved Saints can win that elusive flag this year and he plans to get the finals started with a bang.

The Shane Warne Foundation Footy Finals Lunch is for a good cause.

“It’s going to be a great day so come and join us and help raise money for children’s charities.”

Warne said from England, where he’s getting the lowdown on the Poms before the Ashes battle.

The lunch, hosted by radio duo Hamish Blake and Andy Lee on Sunday, August 29, will be the foundation’s biggest.

Sam Newman, Garry Lyon, Glenn Archer and Aaron Hamill will talk football and Strauchanie.

Mick Molloy, Russell Gilbert, Glenn Robbins and Fifi Box will entertain with a humorous take on the season.

“We have an all-star line-up looking forward to providing you with our own blend of football insight and comic relief,” foundation general manager Jason Warne said.

The foundation raises funds to help seriously ill and underprivileged children and teenagers in Australia.

It raised $530,000 last year for 28 charities and has handed out more than $3 million since its inception.

Tickets for the Crown Palladium lunch are $250 or $2000 for a table of 10. Book at www.tswf.com.au
