

Melbourne Observer
13-Oct-2010
 Page: 6
 General News
 Market: Melbourne
 Circulation: 22000
 Type: Suburban
 Size: 311.30 sq.cms
 Frequency: --W----

To Di
For

I love my job!
 with leading Melbourne publicist DI ROLLE

Di Rolle is heard most Mondays with Keith McGowan on 3AW, just after the 1am news.

Tournament

■ Whilst I am having a flutter at the track, interesting to note that the 'Joe Hachem and Shane Warne Charity Poker Tournament' is in its fourth year and will be held at Crown Casino on Sunday October 31 at 12.30pm.

This event is renowned as the most prestigious fundraising poker event on the social calendar, bringing together Australia's most successful poker players, high profile sports stars and celebrities.

They have one ambitious aim, to raise over $500,000, to further enrich the lives of seriously ill and underprivileged children and teenagers in Australia via The Shane Warne Foundation.

On Sunday October 31 and kicking off at 12.30pm, the world famous Crown Poker room will be totally transformed into a poker Mecca, and in a first, the event will not be open to the public for viewing only paying guests.

Created by cricket legend and the best fast bowler in the world Shane Warne and world poker champion Joe Hachem, this event has become one of the most popular poker events in the world.

"It is an honour to be working with Crown and Joe Hachem for the fourth year of this event," said Shane Warne.

"We created this event to make a positive impact on the lives of children. I am delighted the event continues to grow every year boasting more celebrities, more players and more poker pros."

Celebrity guests expected to take a seat and their best poker face on to battle

● Joe Hachem and Shane Warne